DELAWARE VALLEY TRUSTS

DVWCT and DVPLT Training Announcement

Title:	Respect and Harassment Awareness – Impact of Bias in the Workplace
Description:	We all like to think we are unprejudiced, inclusive and objective; but unconsciously, we tend to gravitate towards the people who look and think like us. The damaging effects unconscious bias can have on businesses are reflected in our hiring, promoting and possibly disciplinary practices. This presentation will offer tips for reducing biases in the workplace by identifying what bias is, its impact, and strategies to reduce the impact of bias in our general and professional lives. Managers, supervisors and HR staff are encouraged to attend.
Presenter:	Matt Verdecchia, Senior Trainer, Health Advocate
Schedule:	Wednesday, May 8, 2019 10:00 a.m. to Noon
